1.Introduction

1.1 Context

This guide is developed by the National Agency for the Regulation of Cannabis Activities (ANRAC), as part of the implementation of the provisions of Law No. 13-21 on the licit uses of cannabis, promulgated by Dahir No. 1-21-59 of 3 hijja 1442 (14 July 2021), and the instruments adopted for its implementation.

1.2 Purpose

This is a technical document for natural or legal persons who wish to invest in one or more cannabis-related activities.

It describes the procedure to follow for obtaining approvals to conduct cannabis-related activities, the procedures for filing applications, provides the requirements for such applications, the conditions for granting, suspending and withdrawing approvals, as well as the obligations imposed on applicants for approvals.

1.3 Scope

This document aims to assist natural or legal persons, importers, traders, manufacturers, industrialists, wishing to apply for an approval to conduct one or more of the following cannabis-related activities :

- the cultivation and production of cannabis,
- the establishment and operation of cannabis nurseries,
- the export of cannabis seeds and plants,
- the import of cannabis seeds and plants,
- the processing and manufacturing of cannabis,
- the transportation of cannabis and its products,
- the marketing of cannabis and its products,
- the export of cannabis and its products,
- the import of cannabis products.

It does not concern the cultivation, manufacture or use of cannabis for research and teaching purposes as referred to in article 3 of the dahir of 20 chaabane 1373 (24 April 1954) prohibiting kif hemp.

This guide does not address the procedures for obtaining other approvals that are unrelated to the cannabis business, nor does it address issues related to the economic, organizational or tax considerations of the proposed investments.

12. What about cooperatives ?

Cooperatives are defined by Article 1 of Law No. 112-12 on cooperatives, promulgated by Dahir No. 1-14-189 of 27 Moharrem 1436 (November 21, 2014), as a grouping of natural and/or legal persons, who agree to join together to create an enterprise, allowing them to satisfy their economic and social needs, and which is managed in accordance with the globally recognized fundamental values and principles of cooperation, including :

- voluntary and open membership
- democratic management of cooperatives
- economic participation of members
- autonomy and independence
- education, training and information
- cooperation between cooperatives
- commitment to society.

Cooperatives are classified according to this same article, into 3 categories:

- 1- cooperatives to which members supply products for sale to third parties after their processing or services for supply to the latter;
- 2- cooperatives that produce goods or provide services for their members;
- 3- cooperatives that offer paid employment to their members.

The provisions of the aforementioned Law No. 112-12 also define the principles of management and administration, objectives, organization, operation, etc.

The constitution of cooperatives follows the modalities described in Law No. 112-12, as amended by Law No. 74-16 of August 10, 2017, as well as the Constitutional Guide and the Moulaama Guide established by the Cooperation Development Office (O.D.C.O).
